About fifty invited guests gathered at the home of Miss. Ada Weir on Tuesday evening, to celebrate her fifteenth birthday. Miss. Ada received a number of beautiful presents from her friends who all unite in wishing her many happy birthdays.

The normalites and other young people of Beaver were delightfully entertained on last Saturday evening at the pleasant home of J. H. Blanchard's in the south-east part of town. The evening passed pleasantly away in social converse, refreshments, games, etc.

On last Saturday evening near the hour of 11 o'clock, Mr. Gene Groves and Miss. Nellie Sencenich, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Tracy at his office. This was quite a surprise to all, not even their most infimate acquaintances or nearest relatives suspecting the wedding to occur just at that time. THE HERALD extends congratulations and wishes them a long life of happiness.

J. H. Rosvelt has a splendid piece of corn of which he is very proud. His other crops are also fine as could be asked for, even down to the most delicate garden plants. Mr. Rosvelt is a practical farmer and usually raises a good crop upon his fine farm even though the land is above reach of irrigation.

Mr. Vaughn, who lives on the Beaver west of Optima, is becoming quite a farmer, He has a large and thrifty garden besides a number of acres of sorghum and other forage crops all of which look well. He is prepared to irrigate his land when necessary, but the abundance of rain this summer caused ditches to be used more for drainage pur-

The usually dry lakes upon the high flats are all full of water this summer so that travelers between ranches and settlements have no lack of water. Upon these high flats is always to be found the very richest of grass, but in years past no benefit could be derived from it as it was too far from water for stock to reach; but this year large lakes of water are to be found every few miles from one end of the county to the

With a few seasons like this, Beaver county would be the richest county in Oklahoma Territory.

W. O. Cochran, of near Kenton, is en tertaining his aged father and mother who recently arrived from Washington, Although they both are near four-score years of age they stood their long journey from the north western coast very well and seem well pleased with the western portion of

The unusually high water in the Beaver and Cimarron rivers has destroyed a large portion of the hay crop, but still there will be no lack of hay. The unusually wet season has produced hay upon thousands of acres of land never before known to produce grass of sufficient height for mowing. Gramma grass is knee high upon thousands of acres of the highest land of the J. V. Abrams has a fine farm up west on the Cimstron, and by looking at his large garden, his crop of alfalfa and other crops and improvements, one can readily see that he is a man who understands his business and has the energy to attend to it. It is estimated that three million dollars worth of grass will go to waste in this county this year. There should be more stock in the county or more extensive farming. W. O. Cochran, near Kenton, has the finest peach orchard in the county. Many others could have just as good and productive trees if they would only exert themselves a little

Uncle Pap Pletcher and wife, of Kenton appear to be in good health and as jolly as ever this summer. They are not yet content to cease to labor or to enjoy the fruits of many years toil in idleness. When it comes to social enjoyments too, the aged seem to be "just as young as they used to be."

National Irrigation Congress.

The programme for the National Irrigation Congress, which meets in A!- goods. buquerque, N. M., in September, indicates an unusually able series of papers and addresses. The address of welcome to the delegates will be made by Governor Thornton who will be followed by Judge J. S. Emery, of Kansas. Among the other speakers will be Hon. Clark E. Carr, of Illinois; Ex-minister to Denmark and Ex-governor L. A. Sheldon of Los Angeles; John E. Frost, land

Camp Meeting. There will be a Camp Meeting in the Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Davis grove, on the Frisco, commencing Sept, 5 and lasting four days. Rev. W. H.
